Dear Effie

As there is a special train for the boat from Liverpool to London & I have a lot of packing cases & boxes it will be best that I go first of all to London, fix up about a flat or rooms and that sort of thing then to store my things & then come along to Newcastle about first week of January.

I have promised a fellow from the same town in India. This is the man in India that I want accompanying him to Edinburgh for Ruas - on my way back & will halt for some time with you.
By that time I think he is a more "respectable" name of merit - This long sea voyage has a most unsettling effect & although I recommend myself absolutely in town so far than we say how much longer one can stand the strain, for sure I'll break out & have three glasses of milk instead of my usual one only.

With mighty glad I see the toy age is over - it was nice enough up to Newcastle but it is getting boring now as well as somewhat cold. I see that you have been suffering from a particularly cold spell - I suppose Newcastle must be horrid some. In a pair you will find me a lazy man... When it's cold like that I have got up or rather out of the paper 10.

I wonder if your manager is there that is, you are after - That will mean you will have to be up early & about to the school.
Anyhow, try to be as little troublesome as I can possibly be.
Best of luck & looking forward to seeing you

Yours truly
Chas. W. S.
